The aim of the Leeds Beckett Repository is to provide open access to our research, as required by funder policies and permitted by publishers and copyright law.

The Leeds Beckett repository holds a wide range of publications, each of which has been checked for copyright and the relevant embargo period has been applied by the Research Services team.

We operate on a standard take-down policy. If you are the author or publisher of an output and you would like it removed from the repository, please contact us and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

Each thesis in the repository has been cleared where necessary by the author for third party copyright. If you would like a thesis to be removed from the repository or believe there is an issue with copyright, please contact us on openaccess@leedsbeckett.ac.uk and we will investigate on a case-by-case basis.

You will leave here with a problem solved.
(Or at least halved).

1. Think of an activity in your job at the moment where you have resistance from a colleague or client.
2. Turn to your neighbour and tell them about it.
3. Ask your neighbour for one piece of advice to help the other party move towards acceptance.

It's all about content.

A bumpy road.
